

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the radio broadcasting industry has made many signal contributions to the economic, technological and cultural development of our society and these contributions are deserving of great recognition, and

WHEREAS, radio broadcasting as a means of mass communication has become a vital force in the maintenance of our nation's welfare and security, and

WHEREAS, the radio broadcasting industry has consistently devoted itself to the enrichment of our lives by making available to all Americans vast sources of information, education and entertainment, and

WHEREAS, radio stations throughout the United States have taken a very active role in community life, displaying unstinting willingness to assist in the promotion of civic projects and place facilities at public disposal in times of crisis;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim that our State will observe May 13--19, 1956, as

and call upon all citizens to take note of the achievements of the radio broadcasting industry and to salute the men and women associated with it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 11th day of May, 1956.
